Evaluation of the Availability of Smart University Requirements in the Egyptian Universities - Case Study (University of Sadat City, Egypt)

D. Bassam Samir Al-Melham

1. Department of Tourism and Hotels - Sadat City University, Cairo, Egypt

2. Faculty of Tourism and Hospitality, University of Sadat City, Cairo, Egypt

Abstract

Many universities around the world are seeking to become smart universities so that they can compete locally, regionally and globally. The study aims to evaluate the availability of the requirements of smart universities at the university of Sadat city in Egypt, as well as to develop a proposed plan for improvement in the future. To achieve the goal of the study, the researchers designed a survey form and distributed it to 350 faculty members at University of Sadat city. Only 284 valid forms were analyzed by SPSS V.25. The study found that there are some of the requirements of smart universities at university of Sadat city reasonably, such as smart people, smart management, and smart education environments, but there are no smart buildings. Despite the availability of some requirements of smart universities at the University of Sadat City, but it needs to be developed and improved to become more available.

Keywords: Smart Universities, Smart People, Smart Buildings, Smart Management, Smart education Environments, University of Sadat City, Egypt.